As my first official duty as LASA Honorary President I am delighted to be attending the 2024 Age Groups and Championships. I am very much looking forward to seeing you all swim and witnessing the great swimming talent we have within the county. I know for some it will be their first major competition and they may be feeling nervous and apprehensive. I hope these feelings will quickly pass once the first race is under their belt and it can be seen that this competition is there to be enjoyed as well as gain invaluable experience. I wish all swimmers the very best of luck in all your races.

Of course, these events don't just happen. I hope you will join me in conveying huge thanks to the dedicated team of volunteers headed by our Promoter, Geoff Robilliard, who have worked tirelessly over several months to put this competition together. Thanks also to all the officials, stewards, results team, team managers and coaches and other volunteers for making it a reality and to the parents, friends and family who are here to watch their swimmers. I hope you too have an enjoyable experience.
